Fundamentals:

- ISH reserves the right to make changes to the residence fees for the following academic years.
- Should all accommodation units of the requested type or category already have been allocated, ISH will offer an alternative where possible. When you receive the documents for admission, you may of course decline the suggested alternative. We regret that this procedure may be necessary when demand exceeds availability.
- Mixed-gender occupation of one and the same unit is permitted. Please be aware though, that you cannot change accommodation units during the year.

I hereby confirm that I have received, read and understood the above information.
